

What's what?

Draw a green circle around the adjective apples, a black circle around the noun apples, and a red circle around the verb apples.

Just a reminder:

A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea. A verb shows action, a state of being (John is tired), or an occurrence (Snow glistened on the car) . An adjective describes a noun or pronoun.

